INTERNATIONAL SPEAKERS:

NICK VUJICIC

#1 Inspirational Speaker In the World.

International inspirational speaker and New York Times best-selling author Nick Vujicic was born in 1982 in Melbourne, Australia. Without any medical explanation or warning, Nick came into the world with neither arms nor legs. Throughout his childhood, Nick dealt with the challenges of school and adolescence, such as bullying, self-esteem issues, depression and loneliness as he questioned why he was different from all the other kids. As Nick grew up, he learned to deal with his disability and gradually went onto tertiary education, obtaining a double Bachelor's degree, majoring in Accounting and Financial Planning. By the age of 19, Nick started to fulfill his dream of encouraging other people through their struggles. Nick is now a highly sought after motivational & inspirational speaker traveling the world speaking and coaching others to overcome their obstacles. He has visited over sixty-five (65) countries, met with 16 presidents, addressed 9 governments and spoken to over 6.5 million people live! He is an accomplished author with five (5) titles including a New York Times best seller "Unstoppable" and is published in over thirty languages. Nick starred in the short film The Butterfly Circus, which won the Dorrpost Film Project's top prize of 2009 and two awards as the Best Short Film at the 2010 Method Fest Independent Film Festival. Nick's story continues to resonate worldwide, and he has been featured on "CBS Sunday Morning," "Oprah's LifeClass," "PBS Religion & Ethics News Weekly," USA Today, NewsMax, "Life Today" and "The 700 Club," and twice on "60 Minutes Australia." Nick is married with four children and lives in southern California.

DR. RUBEN WEST

International Speaker, Author, Entrepreneur,

Certified Professional Success Coach

Ruben is a dynamic internationally recognized speaker, trainer, published author and certified professional Success Coach. He teaches and trains students and clients all over the world to step into their vision and achieve their personal greatness.

Beginning in the late 80's, Ruben recognized his ability to help others achieve their dreams. In 1991 Ruben's life was forever changed by his experience serving in Operation Desert Shield/Storm as a US Army soldier.

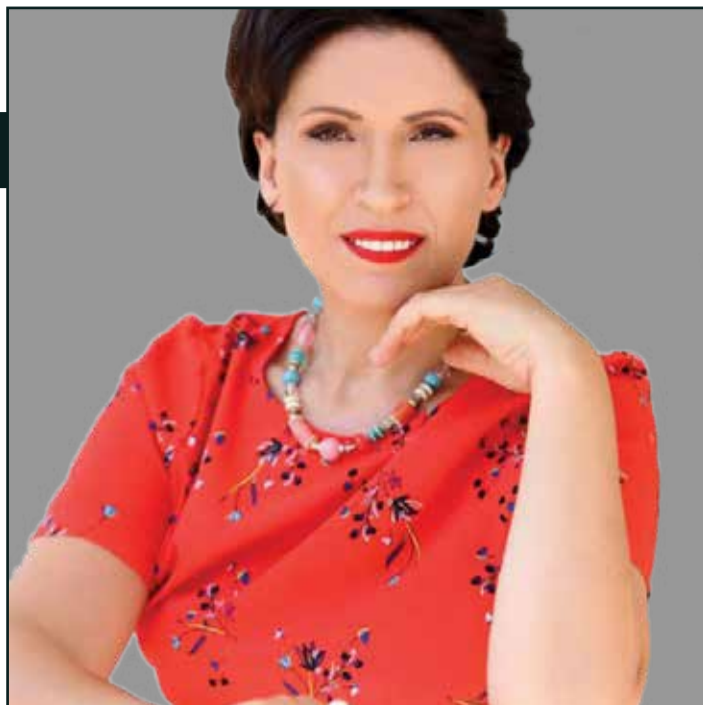

Realizing how fragile life was, this experience made him refocus his commitment to making every day count. Since that time he has helped to create the profession of Surgical First Assisting in the state of Kansas, co-authoring the text book as well as other training materials. He also started a martial arts school to empower youth, as well as adults, helping them to maximize their potential and exceed their own expectations. Ruben's ability to impact lives was solidified when he was inducted into the US Martial Arts Hall of Fame in 2005 as Instructor of the Year.

After starting several businesses generating millions of dollars, Ruben developed a masterful coaching system that allows individuals to increase productivity, improve relationships and spend time doing what matters most.

found himself behind bars, facing a possible lengthy prison sentence from a false accusation. 20 Years later, his false accuser came forward to clear his name.

Tiki also learned that regardless of where you came from or where you are today, you can achieve greatness. Tiki ended up in prison, but was able to transform his life. He graduated from Sul Ross State University with a Bachelor's degree in communications, a minor in theatre, and a Master's degree in liberal arts. He was honored by the Odessa Chamber of Commerce and named Black Entrepreneur of the Year.

Despite Tiki's challenges, he has been able to achieve success as a coach, mentor, an entrepreneur in the Oil & Gas Industry, Construction, Restaurateur, and Real Estate Investor. He has also accomplished becoming an actor, with his first movie debut in the movie "Friday Night Lights" and he is also a highly sought after model. He will inspire to you greatness.

BARBARA ALLEN

Co-Founder of American Snippets

Barb Allen is Grief's worst enemy. After losing her husband in a tragedy that rocked the military, Barb struggled with finding her own will to live. Were it not for her love of her four children, she may not have accepted the help that came her way, and Grief may have claimed another victim.

But instead, she began to realize her Will was mightier than she'd believed, and she began to turn the table on Grief.

Amply blessed with family and friends, Barbara's world expanded further, and she developed a network that spanned the country. Not even her worst mistakes overpowered her greatest triumphs as she learned valuable lessons from her experiences, and enhanced her professional worth.

Barbara is a firm believer in extracting value from experience, and using that value to create a life that is rich in beauty, no matter the odds.

Barbara counseled hundreds of people as a professional Veterans Services Officer.

Today she is an award-winning author, compelling keynote speaker, an impactful personal development coach, and co-founder of the patriotic platform, American Snippets.

Barbara resides in a small town in NY, with her fiancé and their six children.

MARIE COSGROVE

The Entrepreneur Who Bought

The Company That Fired Her.

Author, International Speaker, Corporate Consultant

Marie is a published author, international speaker and is a successful entrepreneur with a proven track record of turning failing companies into profit centers. Among her successes is being fired from a medical device manufacturing company specializing in developing devices to help doctors diagnose concussions, traumatic brain injuries, dizziness, and vertigo, to buying the same company who had fired her. Eight years later, she continues to lead this company and has taken it international. She also grew a start-up medical device company specializing in arterial and vascular diagnostic solutions into a 14-million-dollar company within two years.

Marie has over 15 years' experience in the medical industry where she closely works with top neurologists and medical researchers on the brain's ability to rebuild neuropathways, which until recently was thought to be impossible.

A renowned international speaker, she talks about how we can rebuild these neurological connections, strengthen cognitive ability, and unleash the GREATNESS that is within you.

She has trained various organizations such as the Universities, Government Bodies, Ministry of Education, Churches, Women's Organization, US Embassy, and many others.

Marie serves on the Forbes Coaches Council and as President of the Advisory Council for the John Maxwell Team. She has been featured in Hispanic Executive magazine and recently received the iChange Nations Golden Rule Award, presented by Dr. Clyde Rivers, United Nations Ambassador for Peace Building Initiatives.

DEBORAH CASE

Deborah Case brings a lifetime of dance experience to bring you a world of majestic, playful, magical and heart-warming talent thru vibrant energetic vivid choreographies with a cast of energetic, innovative dancers and performers under her guidance through her Academy.

She began her own training at the age of 3 in Texarkana, Texas under Dixie Splawn. She has since been invited back to Texarkana on numerous occasions to train dancers and stage shows, including The Nutcracker.

Her dedication to teaching the Vaganova (Russian method) of dance has brought unbelievable dance professionals to teach at the Dance Academy. Namely, Galina Mezentseva and Irina Vakhomeeva, Kirov Ballet in St. Petersburg, Russia; Alex Ossadnik, Dresden, Germany; Yloy Ybarra, NYC; and Florian Rouiller, Stuttgart Ballet, Germany.

Through personal invitation from Irina, Deborah traveled to Moscow with six of her dancers to study at the Bolshoi Ballet Academy. Through the Bolshoi Ballet Academy teacher training program, Deborah received an official certificate from the Russian government. Many of her dancers can be seen performing in professional dance companies across the US and abroad.

Deborah studied at Texas Christian University (TCU) in Ft. Worth, graduating with a Major in Education and a Minor in Dance, making the perfect combination for her dream of owning her own dance school. That dream is a big part of Deborah Case Dance Academy.

Along with her teaching at the DCDA and Rio Grande Valley Ballet, she is a certified John Maxwell Speaker, Life Coach, and Leader; certified Les Brown speaker; member of Toastmasters International, Inc., serves on the Quinta Mazatlan and McAllen Performing Arts Advisory Board; is a Lay Eucharistic Minister, prayer partner and lector at St. John's Episcopal Church. She is most proud of being a Nana of four amazing grandchildren, and wife to Jimmy Kryzak!
